

Independent and Assisted Living in Woburn, MA

New Residents

We extend a warm welcome to Sylvia and "Nino" Bonomo, Suite 287, who join us from their apartment in Wakefield. This lovely couple has enjoyed each other's company since their youth, growing up in the same Wakefield neighborhood.

Following their graduation from Wakefield High School, Sylvia began a job in the typing pool at John Hancock while Nino served four years in the U.S. Navy. After returning from his time in the service, Nino began a career as a barber. They were married in June of 1954 and later became parents to a son and a daughter.

They have had the good fortune over the years to travel to Italy on five occasions, and have embarked on cruises to all of the Caribbean Islands. These days, this active couple spends a lot of time at the Reading YMCA, with Sylvia making use of the swimming pool and Nino the gym equipment.

Off to the Races

The 152nd Kentucky Derby was held on Saturday, May 2, at Churchill Downs. As seen in the below photo, many residents celebrated in style by decorating festive hats. They cheered on their picks to win the Run of the Roses while enjoying snacks and sipping on mint juleps, the traditional beverage of the Kentucky Derby.

Fun fact: At Churchill Downs, more than 120,000 mint juleps are served during Derby weekend!

Residents always enjoy a chance to dine out together, and this month they visited three local restaurants. The group returned to Jimmy's Steer House in Arlington, a beloved local institution that has been serving the community for more than 50 years, and also tried Evviva Trattoria at Redstone Shopping Plaza for the first time.

For something a little different, residents also visited The Vintage Tea and Cake Company in Lexington. This charming tea room offers specialty teas accompanied by bite-size sandwiches, delicate mini pastries, and warm traditional scones served with clotted cream and jam.

IN MEMORIUM: We are sad to share the news of the loss of Tricia Kane who was an important member of our community for the past five years. With her affable personality, she brightened the day of all who came in contact with her. We send heartfelt condolences to her sister Jean along with her attentive family and her many friends.
